Shareholders shall be granted subscription rights. However, the Executive Board is authorized, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, to exclude fractional amounts from the subscription rights of shareholders and to also exclude these subscription rights, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, insofar as this is necessary to grant holders of conversion or option rights to registered non-par shares of the Company subscription rights to the extent to which they would be entitled after exercising their conversion or option rights.

Furthermore, the Executive Board is entitled, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, to exclude the subscription rights of shareholders if the issue price is not significantly lower than the stock market price. However, this authorization shall apply only subject to the condition that the shares issued excluding subscription rights according to Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) account for a total amount of no more than 5 % of the capital stock calculated in relation to the date on which this authorization becomes effective or – if such value is lower – when this authorization is exercised. This limit of 5 % of the capital stock shall include, since the authorization was granted, i.e. since April 15, 2015, any option and conversion rights granted to shares of the Company, excluding shareholder subscription rights, according to Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) as well as any treasury shares sold, excluding subscription rights, according to Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

The Executive Board is authorized, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, to determine all other rights of the shares and the terms of issue.

The Supervisory Board is authorized to revise the wording of the Articles of Association after the complete or partial implementation of the increase in the capital stock from the Authorized Capital 2015 or after the expiry of the authorization period according to the extent of the capital increase from the Authorized Capital 2015.

- (6) The capital stock of the Company is conditionally increased by up to EUR 5,200,000 (in words: five million two hundred thousand euros) by issuing up to 5,200,000 new registered non-par shares with a pro-rata amount of the capital stock of one euro (Conditional Capital 2015).

The conditional capital increase serves to grant shares to the holders or creditors of convertible bonds or bonds with warrants which are issued based on the authorization resolved by the Annual General Meeting of the Company on April 15, 2015. The issuance is carried out at the conversion or option price to be specified according to this authorization.

The conditional capital increase shall be carried out only insofar as conversion or option rights are exercised or the creditors or holders of conversion or option rights with conversion obligations fulfill their conversion obligations, and insofar as treasury shares are not used to cover this. Shares issued in such manner shall participate in the profits from the beginning of the financial year in which they are issued through the exercise of conversion or option rights or the fulfillment of conversion obligations.

The Supervisory Board is authorized to revise the wording of the Articles of Association after the complete or partial implementation of the increase in the capital stock from the Conditional Capital, according to the extent of the capital increase from the Conditional Capital.

- (2) The Supervisory Board may exempt all or individual members of the Board of Management, and employees vested with full commercial power of attorney authorized to legally represent the Company jointly with a member of the Board of Management, from the provisions of Section 181 2nd alternative of the German Civil Code (BGB) prohibiting multiple office-holding; Section 112 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) remains unaffected.

Fourth Part: The Supervisory Board

Section 7 Composition of the Supervisory Board

- (1) The Supervisory Board shall consist of twelve members, six of whom are elected by the General Meeting and six of whom are elected by the employees according to the German Codetermination Act of 1976. Not more than two former members of the Company's Board of Management shall be members of the Supervisory Board.
- (2) Unless the General Meeting resolves a shorter period at the time of their election, members of the Supervisory Board, including substitutes where applicable, are appointed for a term of office up to the end of the General Meeting that decides on the formal approval of the actions for the fourth financial year after the beginning of their term of office, not counting the year in which the term commences.
- (3) If a successor is elected to take the place of a member of the Supervisory Board leaving office prior to the end of his or her term, the successor's term of office expires on the date on which the departing member would have normally relinquished office, unless determined otherwise by the General Meeting.
- (4) Upon electing a member of the Supervisory Board, a substitute member may be simultaneously appointed who replaces the member on the Supervisory Board if the latter leaves office before the end of his term and a successor has not been appointed. The office of a member of the Supervisory Board replacing another member elected by the shareholders ends as soon as a successor has been appointed for the member who has left office but no later than upon the expiry of the term of office of the member who left office.
- (5) Each member or substitute member of the Supervisory Board may resign from office even without good cause by sending a written declaration to the chairman of the Supervisory Board or to the Board of Management with effect for the end of the calendar month following such declaration. The chairman of the Supervisory Board—or in the event that the chairman resigns from office, his or her deputy—may approve that the term of resignation is shortened or that the observance of the notice period is waived.

Section 8 The chairman of the Supervisory Board and his deputy

- (1) The Supervisory Board shall elect a chairman and a deputy chairman for the term of office specified in Section 7 (2) of these Articles of Association subject to Section 27 (1) and (2) of the German Codetermination Act of 1976. The election shall be carried out following the General Meeting at which the Supervisory Board members of the shareholders to be elected by the General Meeting have been appointed at a meeting that is not required to be specially convened. If the chairman or his deputy leaves office before the expiry of his term of office, the Supervisory Board shall conduct a new election for the remaining period of office of the member who has left.
- (2) Declarations of intent of the Supervisory Board and its committees are issued on behalf of the Supervisory Board by its chairman or, if circumstances prevent this, by the deputy chairman.

Section 9 Rules of procedure and committees

- (1) The Supervisory Board shall adopt rules of procedure in compliance with obligatory statutory requirements and the provisions of these Articles of Association.
- (2) Immediately after the election of the chairman and his or her deputy, the Supervisory Board shall set up a committee to perform the task defined in Section 31 (3) of the German Codetermination Act of 1976. This committee shall consist of the chairman, deputy chairman and one each of the employee and shareholder representatives elected by a majority of the votes cast. The Supervisory Board may set up further committees from its midst and define their tasks and powers. Decision-making powers may also be transferred to the committees. The rules of procedure set out in Sections 10 and 11 below apply analogously to the committees. This also applies to the right to a second vote according to Section 11 (4) to which the respective committee chairman is entitled but not his deputy.
- (3) The Supervisory Board and the committees may call on the support of specialist advisors to assist them in the execution of their duties. They may invite experts and other knowledgeable persons to attend their meetings.

Section 10 Convocation

- (1) Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened by the chairman or in his absence by the deputy chairman, in each case with fourteen days' prior notice. This notice can be given verbally, in writing, by fax, by telephone or via modern means of telecommunications (e-mail etc.). The fourteen-day notice period does not include the day on which the invitation is dispatched or the day of the meeting itself. In matters of urgency, the chairman may specify a shorter notice period.
- (2) The invitation shall state the items on the agenda and the proposed resolutions. Additions to the agenda must ordinarily be notified by the seventh day before the meeting, unless justified by exceptional circumstances.
- (3) The chairman of the Supervisory Board or in his absence the deputy chairman may cancel or postpone a previously convened meeting if deemed necessary according to their best judgment.

Section 11 Resolutions

- (1) The Supervisory Board has a quorum if all members have been invited in due form and at least half the members of which it is to consist in total take part in the resolution. A member who abstains from voting is deemed to have taken part in the resolution. The passing of resolutions on an item of the agenda that was not announced in due time is permitted only if no objection is raised by any member of the Supervisory Board present. In such cases, absent members of the Supervisory Board shall be given the opportunity of subsequently objecting to the resolution within a reasonable period to be set by the chairman. The resolution becomes effective only if absent members of the Supervisory Board have not raised any objection within the period specified by the chairman.
- (2) The chairman of the Supervisory Board or, if he is unable to attend, his deputy presides over the meeting. The chairman determines the order in which the items on the agenda are discussed, the voting method and the order of voting. In the case of a tied vote, the chairman decides whether or not the voting procedure shall be repeated at the same meeting.
- (3) Resolutions by the Supervisory Board must be carried by a simple majority of votes, unless otherwise stipulated by the law. This also applies to elections.
- (4) In the event of a vote being tied, and if a second vote held on the same item also results in a tied vote, a third round of votes is cast in which the chairman of the Supervisory Board has two votes. The deputy chairman of the Supervisory Board is not entitled to a second vote.
- (5) An absent member of the Supervisory Board can submit a written vote, handed over by another member of the Supervisory Board. This also applies to the second vote cast by the chairman of the Supervisory Board.

- (6) The normal procedure is for resolutions to be passed in the context of a meeting. In exceptional circumstances, if so requested by the chairman of the Supervisory Board or in his absence by the deputy chairman, or if all members of the Supervisory Board take part in the vote, resolutions may also be passed without convening a meeting, with votes cast in writing, by telex, telephone, fax, or modern means of telecommunication (e.g. telephone and video conferences, e-mail etc.).
- (7) The invalidity of a Supervisory Board resolution can only be asserted by taking legal action within one month after gaining knowledge of the resolution.
- (8) Minutes shall be drawn up of resolutions and meetings of the Supervisory Board and its committees which shall be signed by the chairman of the respective meeting or, if Section 11 paragraph 6 is applicable, by the chairman of the Supervisory Board or in his absence the deputy chairman.

Section 12 Compensation of members of the Supervisory Board

- (1) Members of the Supervisory Board shall receive a fixed annual compensation payable after the end of the financial year amounting to € 50,000.00 (in words: fifty thousand euros).
- (2) The amount specified in paragraph 1 above is tripled in the case of the chairman of the Supervisory Board and multiplied by one-and-a-half in the case of the deputy chairman.
- (3) In addition to the compensation stated in paragraph 1, members of the Supervisory Board who belong to a committee shall receive an additional € 10,000.00 (in words: ten thousand euros) and if they chair the committee, an additional € 20,000 (in words: twenty thousand euros). This shall not apply to membership in the committee set up to perform the task named in Section 31 (3) of the German Codetermination Act of 1976, for which no additional compensation is paid.
- (4) Members of the Supervisory Board who only held office or performed the functions named in paragraph 2 for a fraction of the financial year shall receive a proportional amount of the due compensation for each month commenced.
- (5) In addition to their fixed annual compensation, members of the Supervisory Board shall receive an attendance fee of € 3,000.00 (in words: three thousand euros) for each meeting of the Supervisory Board or of a committee to which they belong, subject to an upper limit of € 3,000.00 (in words: three thousand euros) per calendar day. If the provisions of Section 11 paragraph 6 have been invoked by the chairman or deputy chair of the Supervisory Board, and a meeting is held via modern telecommunications channels (telephone or video conference), participants shall receive one half of the attendance fee stated above.
- (6) The Company shall reimburse the necessary outlays to members of the Supervisory Board upon presentation of documentation. The applicable VAT shall be reimbursed by the Company insofar as members of the Supervisory Board are entitled to invoice VAT separately and choose to exercise this right.
- (7) The Company shall provide adequate insurance cover for members of the Supervisory Board; in particular, it shall take out a D&O insurance in favor of members of the Supervisory Board.

Section 13 Amendments to the wording of the Articles of Association

The Supervisory Board is authorized to pass resolutions on amendments to the Articles of Association that only affect their wording.

Fifth Part: The General Meeting

Section 14 Convocation of the General Meeting

- (2) Voting rights may be exercised by proxy. Text form is necessary for the conferral and revocation of the proxy and for furnishing proof thereof vis-à-vis the Company. The proxy can also be revoked by the shareholder appearing in person at the General Meeting. This is without prejudice to Section 135 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).
- (3) The Board of Management is authorized to stipulate that shareholders may also cast their votes in writing or by electronic communication without attending the General Meeting (postal vote). If the Board of Management allows postal voting, votes cast in such manner shall be treated as invalid with immediate effect in the event that the shareholder attends the meeting in person or is represented by a proxy.

Section 17 Chair of the General Meeting

- (1) The General Meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board. If he is unable to attend, he shall appoint another member of the Supervisory Board to perform this task. If the chairman cannot attend and he has not appointed anyone to represent him, the General Meeting shall be chaired by a member of the Supervisory Board elected by the shareholder representatives on the Supervisory Board.
- (2) The chairman leads the discussions and determines the voting method, order of voting and form of voting. He may determine an order in which items are discussed that differs from that announced in the agenda. As regards the right of shareholders to speak and ask questions, the chairman may reasonably limit the time shareholders have to do so; in particular, he may reasonably set time limits on the meeting's proceedings, on the discussion of individual items on the agenda or on individual questions and comments of shareholders.

Section 18 Resolutions of the General Meeting

- (1) Resolutions of the General Meeting are passed by a simple majority of the votes cast, unless other majorities are prescribed as mandatory by law. In cases where the law requires resolutions to be passed by a majority of the votes representing the capital stock, a simple majority suffices, unless other stipulated by the law.
- (2) In the event of a tied vote, a motion shall be considered rejected except in the case of elections.
- (3) If there is no majority on the first ballot of an election, a second ballot shall be held between the two persons who received the highest number of votes. If there is a tied vote in the second ballot, the election shall be decided by drawing lots.
